

Galia 475 Open

Compact and easy handling boat – best suited for lakes and rivers

Galia 475 Open is a compact sized boat best suited for inland waters like lakes and rivers. The straightforward construction ensures easy handling and quick maintenance when necessary. All four passengers will find comfortable seats located central and at the bow.

The plexi windscreen will protect the driver from the wind while providing perfect visibility. The optional bow table is great for serving refreshments and converts into a sundeck if needed. Many diverse color lines are available.
